

Daniel Jebri-Soccer

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Senior night and breaking the losing streak against Jesuit.”

Why did you choose Chaminade?

“Their natural science program is top in the US.”

Chaminade University

Audrey Portello-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Getting second at states.”

Why did you choose Duke?

“The commitment to supporting student-athletes.”

Duke University

Tate Cutler-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Breaking the team record in the 100 Fly and 100 Back.”

Why did you choose Auburn?

“Because of the history of dominating the NCAA.”

Auburn University

Charlotte Rosendale-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Making finals at states.”

Why did you choose Alabama?

“The amazing athletic support.”

University of Alabama

Kai Peris-Soccer

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Beating Jesuit.”

Why did you choose Redlands?

“Competitive environment and they’re the best D3 school on the West Coast.”

University of Redlands

Julie Thomas-Field Hockey

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning the league championships.”

Why did you choose Rensselaer?

“Perfect balance of sports and competitive academics.”

Rensselaer University

Zach Ayers-Cross Country and Track

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Celebrating with my teammates after the Mt. Sac Invitational.”

Why did you choose Air Force?

“I felt I would be most proud to graduate from USAFA.”

Air Force Academy

Marina Greenwood-Artistic Swimming

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Competing at Nationals”

Why did you choose Wheaton?

“They have one of the best synchronized swimming teams in the country”

Wheaton College

Emily Castles-Cross Country and Track

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“State meet my senior year with teammates/best friends.”

Why did you choose NYU?

“I love New York and they have an amazing history program.”

New York University

Mikaela Hinton-Tennis

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning individual sections my sophomore year.”

Why did you choose UC Irvine?

“I love the team and the coach.”

UC Irvine

Logan Green-Golf

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning masters senior year as a team.”

Why did you choose UC Davis?

“Good team, good school, great coach.”

UC Davis

Andrew Baum-Football and Track

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Beating Jesuit 24-21.”

Why did you choose Lewis and Clark?

“The quality education and academic opportunities.”

Lewis and Clark College

Evan Stafford-Soccer

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Beating Jesuit my senior year.”

Why did you choose Linfield?

“So I could major in nursing and play soccer.”

Linfield University

Zach Anderson-Soccer

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Beating Jesuit”

Why did you choose Trinity?

“Good education and competitive soccer team.”

Trinity University

Sanne Dequine-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“When my friend slipped off the block freshman year during our relay.”

Why did you choose UCSD?

“They’re an up and coming D1 program.”

UC San Diego

Lilian Wierzbicki-Field Hockey

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“When half of our players got carded during the last 5 minutes of a game.”

Why did you choose Stevens?

“It’s really close to New York.”

Stevens Institute

Daria Okhremtchuk-Rowing

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Racing and spending time with the team.”

Why did you choose Sac State?

“They have a good team and good program for my major.”

Sacramento State

Stella Cardenas-Lacrosse

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“The moments spent with my teammates.”

Why did you choose Colorado Mesa?

“I love the team and their energy.”

Colorado Mesa University

Madison Walker-Water Polo

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning the semi-finals in overtime in NorCal Playoffs.”

Why did you choose UCSB?

“A great D1 program along with an extensive STEM program.”

UC Santa Barbara

Devon Morris-Lacrosse

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning senior night by one point in overtime.”

Why did you choose Colorado Mesa?

“I really like the team and Colorado itself is such a nice state.”

Colorado Mesa University

Bryce Barker-Track

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Making the winning freethrows to beat Jesuit.”

Why did you choose UC Irvine?

“I got in for academics and then was offered to run.”

UC Irvine

Isabelle Meraz-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Breaking relay team records with my friends.”

Why did you choose UH?

“It has a good balance between swim and academics.”

University of Hawaii

Lindsay Taylor-Water Polo

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Winning sections my senior year.”

Why did you choose Indiana?

“It’s a really big D1 school and they have good academics.”

University of Indiana

Isabel Garcia-Track

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Running the 4x100 at Stanford”

Why did you choose SF State?

“I love the city and wanna stay close to home.”

San Francisco State

Julia Miles-Swim

What is your favorite DHS sports memory?

“Section championships.”

Why did you choose GW?

“I like the team atmosphere and living in D.C. sounds really fun.”

George Washington